

Web Entry Form

What is the security protection code and file index? (When using the database option for the Web Entry Form)

These are up to the user. If you are running more than one pool, just be sure to have a different index for each file. The security code is just something to prevent outsiders from spamming the server. Something simple is fine.

Unique solution ID: #1046

Author: OfficePool

Last update: 2017-03-08 15:46